Once Baba Jan quoted Ernest Hemmingway:

“The death of every man diminishes me;

For I am involved with the mankind

Therefore do not send to ask

For whom the Bell tolls

The bell tolls for Thee.”

Once someone said to Baba Jan:

“When I wish for something, it does not come true, but when I don’t wish for something, it comes true!”

Baba Jan replied “There is a secret in this. Make yourself detached-zero- and then all things will come to you. It is more enjoyable when you don’t wish for something and it comes true.”

“There are four types teachers...

One who hides his real inner spiritual height, but appears like a normal human being. He lives at the edge of the seashore.

-One who lives on the edge of the desert.

-One who lives on the top of the mountains

-One who lives in the filthiest, scummiest, wickedest slums.

Majzoobs are in the same condition. Stay away from them because you are intruding. Let them be in their communication with God.”

‘QUESTION’: One is normally inspired by speeches and mehfil (Gatherings). But how to convert this inspiration into “Amal” (Action)?

ANSWER: Normally hero-worships exists in the age of adolescence.

This hero-worship inspires a person to act. Even in the QURAN “Eeman” and “Amal” (Action) are mentioned together. When the faith is strong, then the action follows immediately.”
